HOW TO TAKE BETTER PICTURES

Grabbing someone's attention online can be as easy as posting a picture. Whether that picture is eye catching because it is a great photo or a bad one can all be dependent on how that picture was taken...

- It's all about accessories
- LIGHTS.. camera, action!
- Backgrounds for beginners
- Work those angles!

SPOTLIGHT

SENADA CAUSEVIC

Senada Causevic has been a member of the YNIS family since the middle of 2018. The word that defines Senada best would be perseverance. She is originally from Bosnia and left that country during the civil war in the late 1990's. Senada persevered through the difficulties that being pregnant, single and a refugee in a foreign country would entail.

Her daughter, Christina, recently graduated from UTSA with an undergraduate degree and is planning on pursuing a career in Physical Therapy. The determination and perseverance to succeed that Senada evidenced to her daughter was impactful in Christina's success in achieving her goal of a college degree.

Senada brings a different perspective to the office, and her sense of humor and witty repertoire are the genesis of much laughter. It is not very often that one of the newest members of a team can have the impact that Senada has on our family, but her story, is something that we can all learn from and what she and her daughter have accomplished is something we can all attempt to emulate.
